

CapitalValue Advisors Represents Creative Technology Prosthetics and Orthotics In Acquisition by BCP Group

CapitalValue Advisors (“CVA”) is pleased to the acquisition of Creative Technology Prosthetics and Orthotics, LLC (“Creative Technology”) by Bulow Clinic Partners Group (“BCP Group”). CVA served as the exclusive financial advisor to Creative Technology. “It was a pleasure to work with a company as innovative as Creative Technology. The company provides truly life-changing products to the Colorado community, and it was a joy to work with such an incredible team,” said David Tolson, Managing Director for CVA.

Based in Denver, Colorado, Creative Technology creates custom upper and lower extremity artificial limbs for patients of all ages, utilizing the latest technology to solve the physical challenges of its patients. The Company works closely with the patient’s physician, family and team to ensure that all of the patient’s prosthetic and orthotic needs are being met. Creative Technology has built a stellar reputation in the market and, as a result, has become a trusted provider for referring physicians to recommend to their patients.

The Company is consistently recognized as one of the top ranking facilities of its kind in Colorado and now has a database of over 7,000 patients and 1,500 referring physicians, while continuing to grow throughout the state.

“The CVA team helped us immensely in the transfer of our partnerships and buyout of our clinic. It’s nice to have a group of professionals on your side that are as experienced and knowledgeable about the deal process as CVA. Our new partner was extremely impressed with how David Tolson and his team put our deal together,” said Christian Bailey, founder of Creative Technology.
